NATIONALISTS ACCEPT SINN FEIN CHALLENGE

Joseph Devlin Declares Organization Is So Grotesque That Irish Have Ignored It.

DUBIJN, Sunday, June 16.—Joseph Devlin, Member of Parliament and Deputy Leader of the Irlah Nationalist Party, addressing a meeting at the village of Virginia, Cavan County, in support of the candidacy of O'Hanlon, the Nationalist candidate for Parliament for East Cavan, to-day, said the Parlia-mentary policy was one of the principal factors in the upholding of Ireland's in-terests. He said the Irish party was not going to throw away the weapon.
"The Sinn Pein is not a new doctrine or a new policy." he said. "It has been before the country for twenty years, but the Irish people have paid no attention to it because it is too grotesque, and during this period of twenty years it has not raised a laborer's cettage or helped to brighten or beautify a single woman's home.

"When it was declared by the Sinn Feiners that there is no room for men like John Dillon in Irish politics, then the supporters of the constitutional movement accepted the challenge. There are now two policies before the people in this election. One will result in assured success and the other in certain failure. The promise of an Irish republic in fifty years or fifty centuries is no compensation to the men and women living in this day and generation.

The Bronx should have 1,344,900 tons laid by for the winter; at present the dealers have orders for 400,000 tons and cannot fill them. We should have 5,000 tons daily between now and next October, but there's not a chance of our gettins that much."

A joint letter will be sent by the Deputy Administrator and the Board of Trade to National Fuel Administrator Garfield, asking for the immediate appointment by him of a successor to Albert H. Wiggin, who has resigned as State Fuel Administrator.
